First Holy Communion Benefit Application

This benefit offers a commemorative gift to a child making his/her First Holy Communion. The child must be a financial member of Degree of Honor, which means he/she is the primary insured on a life insurance certificate or an annuitant. In other words, the child must have his/her own policy. Application for this benefit may be submitted up to one year following the child's First Holy Communion.

**Completing this application does not guarantee receipt of the benefit.*
